HUSBAND Anthony CONARD

NOTES:

a stonecutter by trade, he likely served in the Rev. War along with his father (proven). He left Loudoun Co. sometime in the 1820s after the death of his wife and joined brothers Nathan and Joseph, to be followed by brother Jonathan, in Licking Co, OH

Anthony's marriage is in Hinshaw, VI, 484, and he m.o.u., reported 25 Jun 1785. His wife is not mentioned by name. She went by "Molly." Frederick L. Klein, Jr., Auburn, CA sent in the list of Anthony's children, from the Klein bible entries, obviously copied from an earlier bible. Judy Cooper Hines of Morehead City, NC is a descendant and has done considerable searching--mostly in frustration.

The 1810 census shows males, 26/45 (Anthony, 45), 16/26 (Jonathan, 23), 10/16 (David), 4-0/10 (Anthony, Jr., 10; John, 8; Wesley, 4, and Nelson, 1. Females, 26/45 (Mary), 2-10/16 (Catharine, 15 and Nancy, 13) 3-0/10 (Amelia, 7 + two others, unknown). Married by this time were Elizabeth and Mary.

The 1820 census of Loudoun show Anthony, Sr., over 45, Anthony, Jr. and John, and one son 10/16, either Wesley or Nelson, one presumed having died. The only female was 16/26, prob. Amelia, 17

I have been unable to locate Anthony in 1830 in Licking or Knox Co, OH although he was definitely there. His tombstone is clearly marked in the New Utica (Conard) Cemetery.

WIFE Mary KYST

NOTES:

her ages, guessed, are based on a 1784 marriage, and the last child being born in 1809. She was alive in the 1810 census, under 45 years of age. No grave for her has been found, nor any records of the KYST family. A mention of her as "MOLLY CONNARD," is in the will of John Kyst, but original source lost.
Surname variations are Kist, Gist, Geist.

CHILD 1 John CONARD

NOTES:

believed to have died young, as another John b 12 Oct 1801.

CHILD 2 Jonathan CONARD

CHILD 3 Elizabeth CONARD

CHILD 4 Mary CONARD

NOTES:

not known, but looks like an early, say 1821 marriage, prob. in VA, then in 1830s to KY, back to IN late 1830s. Daughter Sarah Elizabeth Ethell married cousin Armistead Mason Klein, 1837.
Connection made of Conard-Ethell by means of an Ethell descendant who had her birth date but not her maiden name.

CHILD 5 David CONRAD

NOTES:

He left VA and seemed to have lived in Baltimore awhile; a daughter married there in 1849.
Census records, beginning 1820, show David Cunnard, Waterford, males, 18/26 and 0/10, females, 16/26, 0/10 and 10/16 (possibly wife's sister)
The 1830, Waterford, David Conrad, p 43, males, 30/40; 2-5/10; 3-0/5; females 30/40; 15/20; 10/15; 0/5.
The 1840, males, 40/50; 15/20; 10/15; 5/10; 3-0/5. Females 40/50; 15/20; 10/15.
1850, Loudoun, David Conrad, 57, Merchant, b VA; Sarah, 54, b VA; Charles, 15, Joseph, 13, Townsend, 10.
1860 David & Sarah living with Fayette & family in Harpers Ferry, Jefferson County, (W) VA.
W. Keith Henry of College Station, TX is a descendant and we are currently working on proving the connections (1996). David left a will in Loudoun
Co. but I have not seen it. Henry said he named issue Fayette J., David P., Sarah E. W., Charles E., James M. M. and Townsend N., all CONRADs. We know Sarah m. James K. Elderkin. There are upwards of 11 children but perhaps several died before their father, as only six are named, according to Mr. Henry--who is not yet convinced this CONRAD family is connected.
There is a David Conrad, Leesburg Dist., Loudoun Co., the son of David,
David, 30 b MD; Anna Bell, 28, b VA; Elenor G., 7, b VA; I.K., 5, b VA;
Anna Bell, 3, b VA; David, 1, b VA. Elenor Gallett, 78, M-I-L, b VA. This was in 1880. They were still in Leesburg dist. for the 1900 census:
David, b Jun 1850, VA; Anne B, Jul 1848; George W. M., Dec 1885; Elsie, Apr 1888; Otto M. S., Feb 1890, Monroe, Apr 1892.
Could not find Joseph or Townsend in 1900 Virginia SOUNDEX
James Conrad of Leesburg, VA says that David had daughters Ellis and Angeline but not enough information to place them. Ellis was married to a Mr Tankard and lived in Baltiore, Angeline married a Hunter and lived in Balt., too.
There are two Conrad marriages in Frederick Co, doubt of this line, but are Elizabeth Conrad m Lafayette Norris, 1 Aug 1848 and Henrietta Conrad md to Thomas Welsh 24 Jun 1830

CHILD 6 Catharine CONARD

CHILD 7 Nancy CONARD

CHILD 8 Anthony Jr. CONARD

NOTES:

most of the dates have been taken from Amy Metcalf Bowen's work on Descendants of John Conard of Loudoun Co, VA, c1939...several other descendants and workers have re-confirmed this information, too...

CHILD 9 John CONARD

OTHER MARRIAGES:

Jane A. WILLIS
Married: 6 Feb 1834 Licking Co,OH

NOTES:

the marriage date is actually the bond date. We suspect they moved to Ohio soon after marriage and may be the John Connard family in Utica, Washington twp., with a male 0/5 in the 1830 Licking Co, OH census This child, presuming that this John is placed correctly, was only a few months old, as John & Eleanor married in Loudoun Co. in May, 1829 and must have left for Ohio shortly there after. As the court house burned, Orphans' Court records are not available.
Feb 2000--a query came in looking for a George Nelson Conard, b 1830, Licking Co, OH...fits...need proof, ended up in Clinton, ~~Linn Co~~, IA
This John re-married 6 Feb 1834 to Jane A. Willis, and went to Iowa City, Johnson Co, IA about 1855 or so. He had son Willis David.
In the 1860 federal census, Iowa City, Johnson Co., p 899,
John Conard, 58, b VA, wife Jane, 40, b OH, David, 19, b OH John (1801) enlisted in Civil War, 9 Oct 1862, age 60, private, resided in Iowa City. Co D, 37th Iowa "Graybeards." Discharged with disability at Cincinnati, 24 Sep 1864. In the 1870 census, #135, p 19, John Conard, 68, b VA, Iowa City twp., wife Jane, 55, b OH, keeping house. Real estate $700, personal $250 died 1870s in Iowa, wife sold land went to CA. Wife Jane applied for a Civil War widow's pension 9 Jan 1886 App #334201, certificate #348346, as Jane A, widow of John Conard from CA. Son Willis D aka David, may have gone too, as was in the San Francisco area from 1870s ff, having three sons. Frank Willis, John A, and George Phynis...presumably all bachelors, living into the 1950s

CHILD 10 Amelia CONARD

NOTES:

Delaware Co, IN histories have Jackson info, spelled Amelia as CONRAD, also named in Amy Metcalf Bowen, 310-12, John Conard of Loudoun Co, VA. Had issue.

CHILD 11 Wesley CONARD

NOTES:

family bible record copied spelled name "Westley."

CHILD 12 Nelson CONRAD

NOTES:

the entry of the birth in the bible record "Nelson Conard, born July 24, 1809." All other references found of this man shows him as Nelson Conrad.
The first census record found in in Fairfax Co, VA, 39 Aug 1850, p. 134, #403, Nelson Conrad, 40, b VA Merchant, worth $3,500, Lavenia, 40, b VA, Martha A., 14, b VA, Thomas N., b 12, John S or L, 10, female..., 8, Mary L., 6, Eliza W., 2.
Nelson lived in Fairfax, VA, Leonardtown, MD and Blackstone, VA according to Dr. W. R. Gardiner, a great-grand nephew of Nelson, in a query, 24 May 2000 in the Conrad Message Board

HARRY RAY.

Harry Ray, 51 years old, passed away at his home, 343 Sixth avenue, this morning at 8:15 o'clock following an illness that became serious last May. He was at Mercy hospital for a time and later removed to his home.

Mr. Ray was born in Clinton September 10, 180, and has always made this his home. He received his education in the public schools and early went into business for himself. The last few years he had not been active owing to poor health.

May 16, 1892, he was united in marriage with Miss Maude Conard. To them were born two children, Harold and Theo, the former now of Sioux Falls, S. D., and the latter, Mrs. E. H. Bereman of Storm Lake. Both the children have been with their mother during their father's last illness, Mrs. Bereman the last six weeks. The son had returned home to look after business and is expected to return to Clinton Wednesday morning. Mr. Bereman is here also.

Left to grieve are the two children, their mother, a little granddaughter, Betty Jane Ray of Sioux Falls, S. D., two brothers, Fred and Walter, an aunt, Mrs. Caroline Belles, a cousin, George Belles, all of Clinton.

Mr. Ray was a member of Wapsie aerie, Fraternal Order of Eagles.

Funeral services will be conducted at the home by Rev. F. H. Burrell of St. John's Episcopal church at 2:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon. Burial will be made in Springdale cemetery.

By Shirley Whelan Deputy

Mr. John Conard, whose funeral occurred to-day, had been a resident of this county for twenty-two years. He came here from Licking county, Ohio, and at his death was aged 75 years.

In all his residence with us he ranked with the most exemplary of our citizens, not only discharging every civic duty with the most conscientious sense of responsibility, but when war came volunteering his aged energies to help his government. He remained in service with the Iowa Greybeard regiment, until peace ,and then returned, much broken in health, to his family.

His latter years were checkered with much physical suffering, the result of disease fastened upon him in the military service, and the government he had served forgot him, in his straitened old age. But he bore up with the greatest serenity to the last and has passed from pain and trial, to the reward of those who fight the good fight.

The legal dispute over the land that used to be owned by our John A. Conard, in Iowa City, is confusing but thought you might want to see it.

A research consultant named, Mary McInroy, at the University of Iowa in Iowa City, was consulted for a better idea of where the actual property lies today. She's an expert on the library's map collection. She said that the property is bounded on the north by Kirkwood Ave, on the South by what was the 1900 city limit and what now is Highland Ave (the street to the south of Third Street on the old map)
On the west, it's the river, of course, and to the east the boundary is what would be S. Dubuque St. if it went all the way through.

The main thing that is on the property now is the old water treatment plant and the Animal Shelter. Nagle Lumber or Pleasant Valley Nursery might be currently on the original property's south end.

To Clarence S. Sies, and Pearl Sies, his wite, Winifred McCleery, Ida Clarke, Ival Sies, and Oxford State Bank, Defendants:

You are Hereby Notified, That there is now on file in the Office of the Clerk of the District Court of Johnson County, State of Iowa, a Petition of the plaintiff, alleging that plaintiff and defendants, except the Oxford State Bank, are the owners in common of the following described real estate situated in Oxford, Johnson County, Iowa: The East One-Half (E 1-2) of Lot No. Six (6) in Block No. Five (5) in Wilcox second addition to the incorporated town of Oxford, Johnson County, Iowa, according to the recorded plat thereof; also Lot No. Five (5) and the West One-Half (W 1-2) of Lot No. Six in Block No. Five (5) in Wilcox second addition to Oxford, Johnson County, Iowa, according to the recorded plat thereof.

That said Oxford State Bank is the holder of a mortgage on said premises; that plaintiff is the owner of a one-third interest in said premises and that Clarence S. Sies, Winifred McCleery, Ida Clarke, and Ival Sies each is the owner of a one-sixth interest in said premises; that the owners are unable to agree upon a division thereof, and said Ival Sies is a minor.

Plaintiff demands judgment confirming the shares of the parties as above set forth in and to said real estate and ask that partition thereof be made accordingly and that a sale of said real estate be ordered in case the same can not be equitably divided, that costs of partition be charged to the parties thereto in proportion to their interest, and for such other and further relief as may be equitable.

(For further particulars, see petition now on file).

Now unless you appear thereto and defend, before noon on the second day of next term of said Court, which will commence on the 21st day of September, A. D., 1925, Default will be entered against you and Judgment and Decree rendered thereon, according to the prayer of the petition.

Drizhal, deceased; that the said last described property is subject to a right-of-way for the use of this plaintiff and said widow and heirs of Charles L. Drizhal and their assigns; and except also the following described lots in the sub-division of a portion of the premises described in the caption hereof as shown by the plat of Subdivision of a Part of Government Lot Two (2), Section Three (3), Township Seventy-nine (79) North, Range Six (6), West of the 5th P. M., and recorded August 25, 1923, in Book 3, Page 100, Plat Records of Johnson County, Iowa, to-wit: Lot Six (6) conveyed by plaintiff to R. H. Fitzgerald; Lot Seven (7) conveyed by plaintiff to Helen P. Kendrie; Lot Ten (10) conveyed by plaintiff to C. H. Dayton; Lot Twelve (12) conveyed by plaintiff to Jennie L. Condon.

Said petition alleges that plaintiff conveyed said lots to said respective grantees by warranty deeds containing the usual covenants of warranty and under an agreement that plaintiff would perfect the title to each of the lots so conveyed to said grantees by an action in court.

Said petition alleges that plaintiff and her said grantees and her grantors have owned all of the real estate described in the caption hereof, except that portion thereof described in the first paragraph of this notice in which the widow and heirs of Charles L. Drizhal have an undivided one-third interest, have paid the taxes thereon, have held the record title thereto, and have been in open, notorious, undisputed, peaceable, continuous, and adverse possession of all of said real estate under color of title and claim of right for more than ten years last past.

Plaintiff further alleges that she is credibly informed and believes that the defendants, and each of them, known and unknown, make some claim to the real estate described in the caption hereof, adverse to the rights and title of plaintiff and her grantees, but plaintiff avers that any and all claims of said defendants, and each of them, (except the claim of John J. Englert as mortgagee) and of said unknown claimants in and to said real estate have long since been barred by law and the statute of limitations and are of no force and effect as against the title, rights, and estate of this plaintiff and her grantees.

Plaintiff also alleges that the names and residences of said unknown claimants are unknown to plaintiff and that plaintiff has diligently sought to learn and ascertain the same, but without success. Plaintiff prays in her petition that as to the real estate owned by her in fee, she be decreed to be the absolute owner thereof; and that as to her grantees, R. H. Fitzgerald, C. H. Dayton, Helen P. Kendrie, and Jennie L. Condon, the real estate conveyed by her to said grantees be decreed to belong to said grantees in fee simple, respectively, subject to any mortgages which said grantees may have executed thereon subsequent to the grants from plaintiff; and that the title of this plaintiff in the real estate owned by her and the title of each of her grantees to the real estate conveyed to them, respectively, by plaintiff be established as against the adverse claims of all the defendants, except the claim of John J. Englert as mortgagee, and that all persons claiming by, through or under said defendants and unknown claimants, be forever barred and estopped from having or claiming any right, title or interest in and to said real estate, or any part thereof, adverse to the title of plaintiff and her grantees therein, and that the title to said respective parcels of real estate be quieted in plaintiff and her grantees, respectively, and that judgment be awarded accordingly.

For further particulars, see petition when on file.

Now unless you appear thereto and defend before noon of the second day of the next term of said court, which will commence on the 21st day of September, 1925, at the courthouse in Iowa City, Iowa, Default will be entered against you and Judgment ales West 33 feet to the center of the public highway known as Primary Road Number 71; thence North 41 degrees 41 minutes East along the center of said highway 33 feet; thence North 49 degrees [illegible] feet; thence North 41 degrees 41 minutes East 93 1-2 feet; thence [illegible] a [illegible] West to the place of beginning; that plaintiff is the absolute owner of an undivided two-thirds interest in and to the last described real estate and that the other one-third undivided interest is owned by defendants: Dora [illegible], widow, and [illegible] [illegible] and Charles [illegible], heirs at law of Charles L. [illegible], deceased; that the said last described property is subject to a right-of-way for the use of this plaintiff and said widow and heirs of Charles L. [illegible] and their assigns, and except also the following described lots in the sub-division of a portion of the premises described in the caption hereof as shown by the plat of Subdivision of a Part of Government Lot Five (5), Section Thirty (30), Township Seventy-nine (79) North, Range Six (6), West of the 5th P. M., and recorded August 31, 1923, in Book 3, Page 24, Plat Records of Johnson County, Iowa, to-wit: Lot Six (6) conveyed by plaintiff to E. H. Kingsbury, and Seven (7) conveyed by plaintiff to Helen J. Shepard; Lot Five (5) conveyed by plaintiff to C. H. [illegible]; Lot Twelve (12) conveyed by plaintiff to Bertha L. Carson.

Said petition alleges that plaintiff conveyed said lots to said respective grantees by warranty deeds containing the usual covenants of warranty and under an agreement that plaintiff would defend the title to each of the lots so conveyed to said grantees by an action in court.

Said petition alleges that plaintiff and her grantors have owned all of the real estate described in the caption hereof, except that portion thereof described in the first paragraph of the petition in which the widow and heirs of Charles L. [illegible] have an undivided one-third interest, [illegible] have held the same, and have been in open, notorious, undisputed, peaceable, continuous, and adverse possession of all of said real estate under claim of title and claim of right for more than ten years last past.

Plaintiff further alleges that she is credibly informed and believes that the defendants, and each of them, known and unknown, make some claim to the real estate described in the caption hereof, adverse to the rights and title of plaintiff and her grantees, but plaintiff avers that any and all claims of said defendants, and each of them, through the claim of John J. Englert as mortgagee and of said unknown defendants in and to said real estate have long since been barred by law and the statute of limitations and are of no force and effect as against the title, rights, and estate of said plaintiff and her grantees.

Plaintiff also alleges that the names and residences of said unknown defendants are unknown to plaintiff and that plaintiff has diligently sought to learn and ascertain the same, but without success. Plaintiff prays in her petition that as to the real estate owned by her in fee, she be decreed to be the absolute owner thereof and that as to her grantees, E. H. Kingsbury, C. H. [illegible], Helen J. Shepard, and Bertha L. Carson, the real estate conveyed by her to said grantees be decreed to belong to said grantees in fee simple, respectively, subject to any mortgages which said grantees may have executed thereon subsequently to the grants from plaintiff and that the title of the plaintiff in the real estate owned by her and the title of each of her grantees in the real estate conveyed to them respectively, be quieted as against the adverse claims of all the defendants, except the widow and heirs of John J. Englert as mortgagee, and that all persons claiming by, through or under said defendants and unknown claimants, be forever barred and estopped from having or claiming any right, title or interest in and to said real estate, or any part thereof, adverse to the title of plaintiff and her grantees thereto, and that the title to said real estate be quieted in plaintiff and her grantees respectively, and that judgment be rendered accordingly.

For further particulars, see petition on file.

daughter of William and Josephine (Norton) Dyer, and a native of Delaware County, Ohio. They are the parents of two children, both of whom are at home. Socially, Mr. Derthick is identified with the Masonic fraternity and the Knights of Pythias. In politics he is a Republican, but has never been prevailed upon to accept office, preferring to devote his attention to his business duties.

CYRUS M. CONARD, a prominent farmer of Burlington Township, is a native of Licking County, having been born February 18, 1823, upon the farm now owned by his brother Joseph. He is the youngest of ten children born to Nathan and Hannah (Butcher) Conard, of whom further mention is made in the sketch of Joseph Conard on another page. His education was gained in the primitive log school-houses of pioneer times and was somewhat meager, but has since been supplemented by thoughtful reading and observation.

The life occupation of Mr. Conard has been that of agriculture, although for a number of years he combined therewith the buying and selling of all kinds of stock, and during the late war he bought and sold a great many horses for the Government. His first marriage took place October 5, 1846, uniting him with Miss Phoebe Long, a native of Licking County, Ohio. They became the parents of three daughters: Mary M., who is unmarried and lives at home; Caroline A., wife of William Johnson, a farmer living in Macon County, Ill., and Amanda A., a dressmaker in Newark. The mother of these children passed from earth April 4, 1859.

The present wife of Mr. Conard, whom he married in October, 1860, was Miss Sarah Kinsey, a native of Coshocton County, Ohio, and daughter of Ingham and Eliza Kinsey, of that county. Eight children blessed this union, as follows: Phoebe Alice, who married Charles Weaver, a farmer of Licking County, and they have one child, Hiram D., who is interested in agricultural pursuits and in the buying and selling of horses; Charles K., who married Eva Jackson and resides in Mt. Vernon, where he conducts a lucrative practice as a physician; Sarah Elizabeth, a teacher in the public schools of Homer, Ohio; John W., who has lived in Illinois for a few years; Joseph M., a talented young man, recently connected with the Columbus Building & Loan Association, but at present in poor health; Dora E., George W. and Clinton G., who are at home, the boys assisting in the cultivation of the farm.

Being a firm believer in the benefits of a good education, Mr. Conard has given all his children the best advantages possible. His son, Dr. Charles K., is a graduate of the Cleveland Homeopathic College and has been engaged in practice about five years. The daughters, who have engaged in teaching, were educated at the Utica Normal Schools and have been very successful in their chosen profession, Miss Sarah E., employed at Homer, having been again appointed to that position for the ensuing year (1894–95).

While Mr. Conard is not actively identified with any denomination, he is a believer in religion and his family attends the Methodist Episcopal Church. In politics he is a stanch Republican and has held various official positions in his township, including those of Assessor and Trustee. He is engaged in the raising of stock and grain upon his home farm of two hundred and five acres. The property has been placed under a high state of cultivation and bears all the improvements of a model estate.

moved from Bedford County, Pa., to Zanesville, Ohio, in 1806. She and her mother taught an industrial school in Brownsville for about two years, giving instruction in needle work, and her mother also teaching the rudiments of education. They occupied an old church, and at one time had fifty or more pupils.

Seven children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Oldham, who are now living, and three died in infancy or childhood. Ellen T., the widow of Thomas Tippett, resides with her parents; Lide M. is the wife of Albert Robinson, a merchant in Albany, Tuscarawas County, Ohio; Charles A. is in the drug business at Kansas City, Mo.; Benjamin T., a resident of Birmingham, Ala., is engaged in the tobacco and brewing business; Lizzie M., who formerly served as Deputy County Auditor of Muskingum County, Ohio, is now employed as deputy in the office of the Treasurer of that county; Minnie married Charles Burton and lives in Indianapolis, where Mr. Burton is buyer for a large manufacturing plant; Allie is a clerk in the wholesale mercantile house of Boggs & Buell, Allegheny City, Pa.

At the time Mr. Oldham came to Brownsville the National Pike was in process of construction, having been completed as far as Hebron. Brownsville was then a prosperous town, with four hotels and a large number of stores. This village was the best wheat market in Licking County, as very little produce was handled from Newark during the winter months, though when the canal was open Newark was a formidable rival to Brownsville.

An intelligent and observing gentleman, Mr. Oldham is considered an authority upon all matters pertaining to his town and county. In his younger days he was correspondent for a number of local papers, and these articles, some of which he keeps on file, evince a thorough knowledge of public affairs and an aptitude in the use of language. It was at his suggestion that the bill was passed regulating the time of disbursing taxes, requiring semi-annual payments, thus keeping more money in circulation and greatly benefiting business men. He has written able articles upon the now all-absorbing labor question, and his logic was not only sound, but almost prophetical. For a man of his years his mind is clear and memory excellent.

A Democrat in political faith, Mr. Oldham is especially well informed, not only on present affairs, but also on the history of the past. As a critic of public affairs his lash is wielded without regard to whom it may hit. He has been aggressive in political affairs, and has been quite noted as a stump speaker. His early political affiliations were with the Whigs, and he assisted in organizing the Republican party. He stood by that organization until after the Civil War, when he left the party by reason of the passage of unsatisfactory currency measures. If such a combination can exist, he may be said to be a free coinage Democrat and a tariff Republican.

For sixteen years Mr. Oldham served as Treasurer of Bowling Green Township, during which time he received and disbursed many hundred thousand dollars. He also served eight years as Postmaster at Brownsville, during the administrations of Presidents Harrison and Tyler. Socially he is identified with Jackson Lodge No. 85, A. F. & A. M., of Brownsville, in which he has held every position except Worshipful Master, which he has always declined. Having been identified with this lodge for fifty-two years, he now enjoys the distinction of being its oldest member. For many years he has been connected with the Methodist Protestant Church, and has always sustained the reputation of an honest man and consistent Christian. Though old age is creeping on, he is still jovial and hospitable as in days of yore, and always views things from the brightest side.

JOSEPH CONARD, a wealthy retired farmer of Burlington Township, Licking County, was born August 7, 1819, on the farm where he now lives, and is therefore at the present writing (August 7, 1894) seventy-five years of age. His parents, Nathan and Hannah (Butcher)

Conard, were born, reared and married in Loudoun County, Va., whence in 1805 they removed to Knox County, Ohio, and about two years later located on the farm where Joseph now lives. Here they died, the father at the age of seventy-five years and six months, and the mother when almost ninety-three. The Conard family originated in Germany.

Ten children were born to Nathan and Hannah Conard, only four of whom are now living. John, the eldest, died near Dayton, Ohio, when about sixty-two; Jonah died near St. Louisville, Licking County, at the age of about sixty-one; Sarah, Mrs. David Duke, died near Johnstown, Ohio, aged seventy years; Mahlon, now eighty-five years old, lives near Fredonia, Ohio; Amos, who is four-score and three years old, makes his home in Monticello, Ill.; Elizabeth, who never married, died at seventy-four years of age; Annie, who married Enoch Selby, died at our subject's home, aged seventy-four; Nathan departed this life in Missouri when sixty-eight; our subject is the next in order of birth; and Cyrus, who lives on an adjoining farm, is now seventy-one. Joseph

When Nathan Conard came to Licking County, this was the extreme western frontier. He settled in the timber among the Indians and wild animals. At the time of his "cabin raising," all the men that could be mustered in the whole community numbered nine. He witnessed the hardships incident to the War of 1812, also the devastation that followed the Indian troubles in the early part of the century, and also lived to see the Mexican War. His death occurred in 1854, at an advanced age.

In boyhood the subject of this sketch attended the subscription schools, which were usually conducted in an abandoned cabin by some man having a knowledge of the elements of the three R's. The "master" boarded around and usually received about $12 per month; the greater the number of pupils, the less the expense per capita. A student was graduated when he reached the "rule of three;" there was then no need of more learning. Grammar was taught only to girls and "tenderfoot" young men who desired a professional education.

Beginning active life as a farmer, Mr. Conard has always followed that occupation. He was thirty-five when his father died, and had at that time a snug little property, the result of his own industry and frugality. He inherited a portion of the estate, and has continued to accumulate until he is now very well-to-do. A life-long Republican, Mr. Conard enjoys the distinction of having voted for both William Henry and Benjamin Harrison, and says he will continue to vote the Republican ticket if he lives to be a hundred. In his religious views he is liberal, never having been connected with any church, but has given liberally of his means to the support of the Gospel.

A genial, companionable old gentleman, Mr. Conard is living at peace with all the world. While he was never married, the voices of children have been heard about his house. At present his nephew's family reside with him. Two of his nephews, sons of Amos Conard, were soldiers during the late Rebellion, Hiram serving more than three years, and David a somewhat shorter term. His maternal grandfather, John Butcher, was killed by the Indians during the Revolution. Nathan Conard was one of the frontier guards during the War of 1812, at which time married men with families on the frontier were constituted the frontier guard to protect the settlements from Indian incursions. He gave one of the volunteers a horse to ride in the war, and the animal was returned to him in safety after the war was over. Many a pleasant ride did our subject in boyhood take upon the old warrior. There was a large block house built in the neighborhood for protection against the Indians, and this stood as a relic for many years after the last Indian had been removed.

It is both interesting and instructive to hear Mr. Conard recount incidents connected with the pioneer history of Licking County, and none of his stories are more entertaining than those connected with the old log schoolhouse where he was "educated." Could such a building be reproduced at present, it would astonish this generation. Imagine a crude structure of logs, a clapboard roof held on by weight poles, floors of puncheon, chimney built of sticks and mud, fireplace large enough to admit a seven-foot log, and for windows an aperture between logs covered with greased paper. Seats were made of puncheons or logs split into wide strips resembling boards, and these were placed high enough from the floor to accommodate the longest-legged boy, but the little fellows sat with feet dangling in mid-air. The master ruled with the power of superior physical strength. His whips were birch or hickory gads, thoroughly seasoned and toughened by being run into the fire and twisted into withes. As may be supposed, a whipping was a punishment to be dreaded and long remembered. Looking back upon those days and recalling the many wonderful changes the century has wrought, Mr. Conard may feel a just pride in the part he has taken in the work of developing the county and its resources.

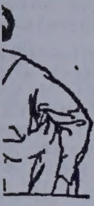
Mr. & Mrs. Henry Walker of Fremont Twp. returned home this morning from a six weeks tour of the western states during which they visited Yellowstone Park and many other places of interest. Mr. Walker informs us that at one time during the trip they were taking a trip by stage when the stage was upset over an embankment & they were thrown down for a distance of 20 ft. Mrs. Walker was badly hurt and has not as yet recovered from her injuries. At Seattle Mr. Walker met Rob Spencer, a former Iowa City man, and enjoyed a visit with him. At San Francisco he found Willis Conard, another Iowa citizen working in a trusted position in the government mint. (This is George Nelson Conard's ½ brother)



Public opinion in California, Dr. Mead told the committee, is strongly behind the land colonization plan, which he said had proved a complete success. Increase of the appropriation for this purpose this year by the legislature was mentioned as well as the fact that the outlay is not a loss to the state, but returnable thereto by settlers with four per cent interest added.

Mead said that California began this kind of rural development before the United States entered the war, and it is his belief that even if there were no problem of the returning soldier, the plans of rural development outlined by Secretary Lane should become a part of the policy of this country.

All of the other allied countries engaged in the war are making provisions to meet the needs of soldiers who have a longing for rural life.

Mead said that $100,000,000 would not begin to meet the demand of the soldiers, but it was as much as could be wisely expended before Congress would meet again.

It was, however, important that this work be begun so that it could be organized before the great bulk of the soldiers returned home. The letters he had already received, the experience of other warring countries and the demand for land by soldiers of other countries convinced him that it was a situation which would have to be met here. In no other way would this country be so greatly benefited as in the development of unoccupied or neglected farming lands.

Frank W. Conard, deputy county clerk, has received word from his brother, George P. Conard, with Company D, Second Engineers, now in Engers, Germany. The letter was the first word received since October 22, when it was reported that he had been wounded. He writes that "everything is Jake." Another brother, John C. Conrad, is at a hospital in Savenay, in France, wounded.

The long expected letter says that Conard has been at all the American fronts, including Chateau, Thierry, Belleau Woods, Paris Farm, Soissons St. Mihiel, Champaigne, Verdun, Argonne Forest and Thierrecourt, where Bart Masters, of the county recorder's office, was killed. Conard escaped without wounds, but was gassed at Bellau Waoods. He is the son of W. D. Conard, 1234 Seventh avenue.

The work has been so arranged that it does not fall heavily upon any one woman; there is a superintendent for each day who chooses her own assistants and supervises the day's work.

Dr. Dwight asks for newspapers—and that they be tied in bundles ready for the Red Cross truck when it calls for them. He also asks for more donations—more—more—is the cry that comes from the shop every day; it is easy enough to sell, says Dr. Dwight, and to make money for the returning soldier's welfare if people will only think every day to telephone the shop that they have something to give: Phone Lakeside 991.

Oakland Chapter, Red Cross, has been given an allotment of 100 bed socks to be knitted and finished within two weeks; these are for the boys at Mare Island. Red Cross workers are asked to call at headquarters, 519 Thirteenth Street, for the wool as soon as possible that this allotment may be sent out at once.

The Red Cross Nurses' Bureau in the City Hall has been discontinued—there is no further need for the valiant services performed therein by the Oakland school teachers as the influenza epidemic which created the need has abated to such an extent that the Health Department can cope with it alone.

All Red Cross workers entitled to the badge of honor—for 800 hours of service—are requested to file their application for such badge before February 15.

War Bride Sues to Annul Her Wedding

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 1.—Lois Andrews, a nurse at the Buena Vista Sanitarium, petitioned the superior court to annul her marriage to Ernest W. Andrews, formerly an army sergeant stationed at the Presidio of Monterey. She charges fraud.

Andrews is at present serving a sentence in a military prison, according to the complaint. It is alleged that he summoned all of the recruits at the Presidio of Monterey on his marriage day, July 12, 1917, and informed them that it was dangerous to keep valuables on their persons, and had them intrust them to him and that he converted them to his own use.

Engineer Sees All U. S. Battle Zone

Frank W. Conrad, deputy county clerk, has received word from his brother, George P. Conrad, with Company D, Second Engineers, now in Koblenz, Germany. The letter was the first word received since October 22, when it was reported that he had been wounded. He writes that "everything is jake." Another brother, John C. Conrad, is at a hospital in Savenay, in France, recovering.

The last expected letter says that Conrad has been in all of the American fronts, including Chateau Thierry, Belleau Woods, Paris Front, Soissons, St. Mihiel, Champagne, Verdun, Argonne Forest and Thiaucourt, where Bart Shannon, of the county recorder's office, was killed. Conrad escaped without wounds, but was gassed at Belleau Woods. He is the son of W. D. Conrad, 1225 Seventh avenue.

Life on a Government Claim
In 1908 in State
of No Dakota Logan Co.

In the State of North Dakota
Far out on the western plain
A thousand miles from loved ones
Holding down a government claim
There is snow on the ground
There is snow in the air
There is snow on the house-tops
And snow every where.
A blizzard is raging from the north east
Blinding alike both man + beast
With the mercury down to 38 below
To call on a neighbor
We havent much show,
But what is the use to
murmur or complain
Such is life on a government claim.

So take new courage "neighbor"
And dont get blue.
Just keep moving and you'll get through
Like our good old friend the Soo
Just couple on your rotary
And plow your way through
If you dont make it today
To-morrow will do —
We'll take time to sleep
We'll take time to eat
We are running on a
"time order."
But no trains to meet
Discouragements are many
And Hardship not a few.

Then cheer up poor homesteader
And look forward to Spring
When the fields are all plowed
And the grain is all sowed
And the harvest is all gathered
You'll be glad that it "snowed"
For all the old settlers tell us
And of course they know,
Our crops will be a failure
If we dont have snow,
So we'll look forward to springtime
With her sunshine and flowers
And remember that the April rain
Will surely bring May flowers
We'll plow the land and till the soil
And sing gaily while we sow
And when we gather in our grain

But we'll stick to our homestead
And prove ourself "true blue"
We'll forget the dissapointments of 1908
And remember the old adage,
Good things come to them
that wait,
Dont think for a moment tho
That I'm finding fault.
With our dear old Dakota
For - Honest I am not
For winter is winter wherever you go
And it wouldnt be winter
with out any snow,

Then Ill stay with North Dakota
Out on the western plain
While Hubby holds the throttle
Ill hold down the claim

Grandpa—(Bert McMahon) One of the most loveable & generous hearted men I ever knew. He was a small man, full of life & vigor with merry blue eyes and a sparkling personality, full of Irish wit and a fine voice, especially adapted to Irish songs, which he loved to sing by the hour, and everyone loved to listen to him. Sometimes if he'd had a few drinks we couldn't get him to stop, for his list of favorite songs was varied and long and I can still hear him singing, "Who Threw the Overalls in Mrs. Murphy's Chowder", "The Irish Washer Woman", and "Down Went McGinty to the Bottom of the Sea". He could and did entertain us all by the hour by just being his natural self.

I remember one summer, during prohibition days, Grandma went on a little trip and while she was gone Grandpa made a lot of rhubarb wine. I can still see him, putting that long rhubarb thru an old clothes wringer and singing at the top of his voice. He was living on a pension then and money was scarce so he thought he'd sell some of his wine to the "guinneas" as he called the foreigners working on the road gang. My mother (Pearl) became so worried that she sent for my Grandmother and of course when she arrived home, the first thing she did was to dump all the wine except enough for Grandpa. Of course he was mad but at least she had saved him from arrest.

He was so funny and loveable that I doubt if he ever had an enemy in the world. Everyone liked him and no gathering was complete without Bert McMahon. He loved to do things to get grandma's goat and he'd lace his shoes with binder twine and pin his overall straps up with a nail, and do all kinds of little things just to hear her stew about it.

He suffered lots with rheumatism in later years and always wore red woolen underwear, winter and summer. One time when we were putting up hay in N.D. the temp rose to 105 degrees and all of a sudden something caught my eye and I looked around there was Grandpas red underwear hanging on the front standard of the hay rack.

Gramp and I hauling water from Renes and sled tipped over and dumped us in the water in deep snow.
The first day we landed in Dak. With Gramp. The big fire. Homes burned. Everything gone. The fire that burned the barn out of the snow bank. Gert & Verna staying at Rambough's after fire. No clothes. Slept in Lou's underwear.

Card of Thonks

Mrs. Sarah McMahon and family wish to extend to their many friends and neighbors their appreciation of help and services during our recent bereavement. We especially wish to thank the gentlemen who offered their cars, and those who acted as pallbearers, as well as the ladies who aided us so kindly at home. It is a great pleasure for us, his children, to know that our Dad, by whom so many in Mount Vernon know him, had so many friends willing to help in our hour of need, and feel sure he and "his little black dog" will be missed by many.

REMINISCING WITH GERTRUDE JOSEPHINE MARCELLUS

September 27, 1982

BACKGROUND: THE HOMESTEAD ACT

President Lincoln signed the Homestead Act in 1862 and by 1871 the railroads had reached the Red River. As the railroads extended their branches, lines of villages and towns sprang up along the new tracks. From 1900 to 1910, a total of 137 new communities were incorporated, where only 75 had been incorporated up to 1900.

The railroads advertised for settlers. The Great Northern Railway offered special rates to men who wanted to come to North Dakota to work in the harvest and, while there, look over the country. Pamphlets, filled with the letters of successful pioneers, emphasized the advantages of North Dakota "where wheat is King." After 1909, although the boom was slackening, the Great Northern alone moved 64,000 new settlers into the State.

Land owned by the Northern Pacific Railroad west of the Missouri River was offered for $2.60 to $4.00 per acre. Terms were offered as one-sixth cash down and the balance in five equal annual cash payments with interest at 7% per annum.

In 1905, the North Dakota State Legislature appropriated $20,000 to advertise the State. A flood of new settlers poured into the State, especially onto the Missouri Plateau. From 1898 to 1915, some 250,000 pioneers entered North Dakota. By 1910, two-thirds of the population had been born outside the State.

WESTWARD BOUND

It was in 1906-07, more than forty years after the Homestead Act had been ratified, when Bert and Sarah McMahon and daughter Olive, pulled up stakes, leaving Chicago for a new life on the North Dakota prairie. Olive's older sister, Pearl—along with her husband Hart Marcellus and their three children, Ruth, Gertrude and Verna—joined them with high hopes of making a better life for themselves and their children. Gertrude was 6 or 7 years old at this time. Olive, who was about 20 years old, filed a homestead claim in her own name but she soon decided that prairie life was not for her and returned to Chicago where she eventually married.

The McMahon and Marcellus families filed homestead claims in the area of Kintyre, a small settlement bordering on Emmons and Logan Counties, just south of Kidder County. It was during those early days that a prairie fire swept through the Sand Hills. Gertrude remembers how frightened she was but felt fortunate they were living in a dugout at the time. She could not recall if there was any damage or loss of animals. It was during this time on the prairie that they came to know the Maltby family who had homesteaded in Bunker and Liberty Townships in Kidder County. Robert was "sweet" on Gertrude from early on, even though he was nearly six years older than she.

Gertrude's father, Hart Marcellus, who was by trade a paperhanger and house-painter, soon deserted his family and returned to Chicago not long after Olive left. {Gertrude had always believed that her father was in love with Olive and, in fact, to the day she died she believed that Olive was her birth mother}. Pearl and daughters Ruth, Gertrude, and Verna remained on the homestead until about 1913 or 14 (during Gertrude's 8th grade), at which time they abandoned the homestead and returned to Chicago. Again, they lived with Grandma & Grandpa, Bert and Sarah McMahon, who had returned to Chicago at some earlier point in time.

Gertrude finished 8th grade in Chicago and attended one year of high school in Springville, Iowa, where the family had relocated. She then went to St. Louis to stay with Olive & Van where she enrolled in a business course. After completion, the firm of Randall, Courtney & Harding, Lawyers & Abstractors, in Marion, Iowa employed her as a legal secretary. This was her first job at age 17.

In May of 1919, at the end of the War, Robert Maltby–whom Gertrude had known as a child in North Dakota–stopped in Iowa, where the Marcellus and Mc Mahon families had settled, to visit Gertrude while on his way back to North Dakota. She returned with him to the Sand Hills where she had lived as a child and married Robert Charles Maltby on May 29, 1919. Robert Jr. and Darlene were born on this North Dakota homestead.

{From notes taken by Gertrude's daughter Dona on September 27, 1982 in Nampa, Idaho.}

Notes

The 1900 Federal Census for Chicago shows John W. Conard, born Aug. 1859, in Iowa, living with his wife Alice, born Nov. 1864 in PA, and their kids: Ralph, born 1883, Crystal born 1884, and Elmer, born 1890 & living at 226 Baird.

The 1910 Federal Census for Chicago shows John Conard, 50 yrs. old, married, born in Iowa, and living at 226 Baird St., with the following people in the same household: Emma, age 29, married, born in Germany, Elma, age 20, born in Illinois, (that must be Elmer misread), and his mother Lucinda living with them at age 76, saying she was born in Ohio. The 1910 City Directory shows John's occupation as a conductor. NOTE: At the same 226 Baird address in 1890, Lucinda and her grandson Elmer are together per the city directory.

Obituary: Chicago Daily News, Thursday, Oct. 27, 1938, Pg. 34
CONARD---John W. Conard, beloved husband of Emma, father of Elmer C. Conard, brother of Mrs. Harry Ray, Mrs. Carter Jones, Mrs. George Belles, and Mrs. Bert McMahon, stepfather of Mrs. Bert Faye. Services Saturday, 3 p.m. at late residence, 235 Thatcher-av, River Forest. Interment Mount Hope.

(This obit reveals that perhaps Ralph & Chrystal found in the 1900 census, were Alice Pearson's children prior to her marriage to John, and that she & John together had Elmer. (Chrystal ended up with the married name of Fay/Faye.)

Death Cert. obtained from Illinois State Archives through their online database. Hard copy received. John suffered from Chronic myocaditis, arterosclerosis, & eventually a cerebral hemorrhage. Says he was a passenger railway conductor & the burial was at Mount Hope cemetery in Worth Twp., Cook Co., IL. His wife Emma was the informant.

sults with the male sex hormone.

Even if true, this is obviously a long way from being applicable to human conditions, and personally I regard it as far from true. The theory that biologists hold now, which is that sex is determined by the presence or absence of the extra chromosone in the male sperm, is so well established that I do not believe it can be shaken. The mother is never to blame for the sex of the child, poor thing, although she often gets blamed. The sex is determined entirely by the father.

G. W. Coleman, of Chicago, illumination engineer of the General Electric Co., gave the technical discussion of the evening, speaking on "Highway Illumination".

Demonstrates Lights

He cited the sharp increase in night driving fatalities and accidents as compared with a gradual reduction in day-time mishaps although night driving is only 25 per cent as common as day operation of motor vehicles. Experiments with and use of illuminated highways have brought about marked decrease in night accidents, he declared, giving figures to prove his contentions.

Highway illumination costs about seven per cent of the cost of building paved highways, Coleman said.

His talk was illustrated with slides and he demonstrated sodium vapor and incandescent lights such as are being used for highway illumination.

Contest Will Be Held For Grade Board Positions

Saturday was the deadline for candidates to file for election to both the grade and high school boards. There will be no contest as far as the high school board is concerned, but for the grade board, four candidates showed up for the two positions to be filled, and a contest ensues.

The election will be held Saturday, Apr. 13, with both polling places in the courthouse and polls open from noon until 7 p. m. The grade board election will be in the GAR room, and the high school board voting will take place across the hall.

Fearn R. Wilson, who has served as grade board president for many years, again filed for that position, and with no opposition, will be elected to the post. It is a one-year term.

There were four petitions filed for the two places to be filled. Those filing were John Abts and Walter A. Jones, present members of the board, and two newcomers, H. Roswell Gray, well known here for his activities in the Boy Scout movement, and William U. York, wounded veteran of World War II, well known for his activity in high school and local sports.

The petitions were filed with Everett Veerman, secretary of the board. This four-way battle should be a hot one, something unusual here in recent years. It is understood that all candidates will make active and vigorous campaigns.

For the high school board, things will be quiet. There are but two places to fill, and but two have filed. I. E. Wilson, now president of the board, and Lewis S. Doren were the two who filed petitions with Secretary Allen R. Farmer. Both will be elected without opposition.

Alfred Carter Jones; b. probably MO; d. March 21, 1908 Chicago, IL at age 49; address at the time of death: 809 Walnut St., Chicago. Occupation: Locomotive Engineer for the C & N W R.R. Cause of death: paresis; Death Cert. # 8046, Dept. of Health, Chicago. Birth state given as MS (probably incorrect) & parents b.p. VA, also probably incorrect.

Lillian Gay Conard; b. Aug. 10, 1865 in Clinton, IA. She d. Dec. 8, 1949 in Lake Bluff, Lake Co., IL. She married Alfred on May 9, 1882 in Clinton, IA.

Re: Marie Jones, daughter of Alfred C. Jones & Lillian Conard
I found Marie age 37 with her husband, Philip Bender, in 1930 Chicago. Philip is enumerated as "Phillips" & his age is way off (40) but it's them. Philip also shows up in the WWII draft cards: Philip Vance Bender; born July 7, 1886 Salix, PA; lives at 223 N. Villa Ave, Elmhurst, DuPage Co., IL. He worked as an employee of Commonwealth Edison Co. in Chicago.

The SSDI: Philip Bender, b. July 7, 1886; d. Sept. 1963; last residence Montana. Marie's sister, Edith (Jones) Bentley, lived in Montana.

I still don't think that Philip & Marie had any children. There is just no indication of that.

That draft card address matches the address on a card they sent to John Dunn, who was my Gr. Grandmother Pearl McMahon's 2nd husband. John & Pearl lived in Lisbon, Linn Co., IA. John's son sent me a box full of cards & letters back in 2004. There are all sorts of letters about Pearl's illness & death & about Sadie (Conard) McMahon, her mother, who also died in 1939. The letters are very sad & it seems that everyone was struggling financially. I got blue just reading them!

I can't figure out when Marie (Jones) Bender died! On the cards & letters to John, she sometimes used the name "Mary." The 1900 census says that Marie was born Sept. 1891 but there is nothing in the death recs. with that year. Only one for: Marie Bender, b. Sept. 15, 1892; d. July 1975 in Spokane, WA. Issued in IL.

Re: Cecile Jones, daughter of Alfred C. Jones & Lillian Conard
I tracked down Lillian's grandson, Robert Kreitling in Wisconsin. He's about 80 now & he & wife are not doing too well physically. They recently moved into a retirement home; his wife just broke her hip; his mind doesn't work that well; he can't find his personal phone book; he knows nothing about Alfred Carter Jones; his sister Dorothy Gustafson died in 1993, Largo, Pinellas, FL. She had two daughters, Cathy & Linda, who live in Saint Petersburg & they have an obit for Cecil Jones-Kreitling. Linda's married name is Green. There are at least 6 Linda Greens living in that city but a Linda Kay Green is age 69, which might be her. Still, I haven't a phone # at this time.

FL Death Index: Cecile Audrey Kreitling died Nov. 25, 1992, Alachua Co., FL, age 88. She was born Jan. 29, 1904 IL. The SSDI shows her last residence in Old Town, Dixie Co., FL. Her son said she ended up in a nursing home & died there.
Cecile married Charles John Kreitling, b. Aug. 11, 1900; d. June 23, 1976 in Palm Beach, FL.
He & Cecil show up in the 1930 Chicago Census with the kids, Robert & Dorothy. He did clercal work for the railroad.

The daughter Dorothy first married a Llewelyn P. Phillips & then divorced. Her 2nd marriage was to a Frank Gustafson.

DEATH CAME SUDDEN.

Nelson Conard Expired at His Home Wednesday Morning.

The many friends and acquaintances of Nelson Conard were greatly shocked Wednesday when it was announced that death had stricken this estimable man shortly before 8 o'clock in the morning, at his home, 322 Tenth avenue.

Mr. Conard arose Wednesday morning in his apparent good health and was about the house in his usual joval manner. Shortly before 7 o'clock he went out and cleaned the snow from the walks about his home. After completing this task he returned to his residence where he expired a few minutes later, death coming without a moment's warning, being due to paralysis of the heart.

Deceased was nearly sixty-four years old and had been a resident of Clinton for over thirty years. He was a carpenter by trade and a man universally respected and esteemed by all. He possessed a kind disposition and was always willing and ready to assist in the comfort of others.

A widow and seven children are left to mourn the loss of a kind and loving husband and indulgent father. The two sons are: J. N. and J. W. Conard, Chicago; the five daughters being: Mesdames F. D. Townsend, Bert McMahon and A. C. Jones, Chicago; Geo. Belles and Harry Ray, Clinton. The members of the family residing in Chicago were at once notified and arrived here last night.

The funeral arrangements will be announced today.

ACCUSERS ARE SCORED

Belief Expressed They Have Been Inspired by Deep Feeling of Animosity Built on Supposed Difference of Policy.

(By Associated Press).

Washington, Dec. 7.—The vindication of Secretary Ballinger upon all the charges brought against him, and condemning his accusers as having been inspired by a deep feeling of animosity built upon a supposed difference in policy respecting conservation, the majority of the congressional committee which investigated the Ballinger-Pinchot case today submitted its report to congress.

DOING HIS FULL DUTY

The majority of the committee declares the evidence wholly failed to make out a case and that Ballinger is "a competent and honorable gentleman, honestly and faithfully performing the duties of his office, with an eye single to the public interest."

ACTS ARE MISCONSTRUED

The committee says Ballinger's accusers evidently had the conservation of natural resources deeply at heart and evidently were disposed to take the most unfavorable view of the character and motives of whomever they supposed opposed their views. This, the committee thinks, caused the accusers to regard with suspicion the most natural and innocent acts of Ballinger in the ordinary course of the department administration. The committee finds the interests of the people as the owners of the Alaskan coal fields are not threatened or endangered under present conditions.

The Cunningham Claims.

An expression of opinion in the Cunningham claims is withheld because they still are pending. The committee believes the commissioner of the general land office will divide these claims fairly and impartially. The recommendation is made that a law be enacted for the transfer of these and similar claims to an appropriate court for hearing and decision. The report also favors the leasing system for the Alaskan coal fields, and that steps be taken to prevent the lands from being monopolized for speculative purposes.

Glavis and Garfield Scored.

Glavis had ample time and abundant assistance to make the field examinations he had demanded, and he was grossly remiss in his duty in not having the examinations made, says the report.

The committee declares Garfield's blanket withdrawals of public lands were made after he ascertained he would not be re-appointed under Taft.

Also that Ballinger's withdrawals and restorations were made after careful examinations and in good faith.

Other Points Considered.

A number of other points are considered by the committee and in every instance where Ballinger acted, his course is approved.

The report was signed by Senators Nelson, Flint, Sutherland and Root and Representatives McCall, Olmsted and Denby, all republicans.

The Specific Findings.

The majority report makes the following specific findings: "That the charges and insinuations against Ballinger in regard to the Cunningham coal land entries, or other coal land claims in Alaska, are not justified, and his conduct in respect thereto is not justly censurable.

"That he was fully justified in revoking the Indian co-operative agreement.

"That the restorations of water power sites by Ballinger were made in good faith and not in enmity to the government, and that no injury appears to have been done the government and the cause of conservation by either restorations or withdrawals.

"That, in view of the opinion of the attorney general, he was justified in abandoning the use of the so-called water user co-operative certificates in connection with the re-
